

Unit 07

Title: Free-time /Hobbies

Vocabulary		Terms & Phrases
English	German	English	German
jazz		Going dancing
opera		Playing golf
blues		Listening to music classical Country & Western
folk reggae soul
rock
disco
techno
hip hop
rap

- What kind of music do you like?
- What kind of music does Tony like?
- What kind of music does Mary like?

Question	Answer
What kind of music do you like?	I like country and western
Do you like classical music	Yes, I do Yes, I do, but I don't like folk music No I don't No I don't, but I like jazz

Free time activities

Vocabulary		Terms & Phrases
English	German	English	German
Running / jogging		Going to restaurants
reading		Going to the cinema singing		Going to the theatre
partying		Going out with friends
Hanging out		Going to parties
dancing		Going to fitness centre
texting		Going dancing
		Watching TV
		Listening to music
		Surfing the Internet
		Going to concerts
		Going on Facebook

Conversation

Question 1	You	Partner
What do you like doing in your free time?	I likeing
Response
So do I (agreeing) Do you? I don't (disagreeing)
Question 2	You	Partner
Do you likeing?	No, I don't
Response
Nor do I (agreeing) Don't you? I do (disagreeing)

Andrea Nilson

Andrea lives in Stockholm, she's 21 and is studying design. She doesn't like jogging or doing sports but she goes to the fitness centre twice a week to keep in shape. What she really likes is going out with friends and she especially enjoys dancing. Her friends are all on Facebook but she hasn't got time for that. She does watch TV sometimes, but not very often. As for music, she likes pop and some jazz, but not Dixieland!

Maria Suarez

Maria lives in Madrid, and works for a big bank. Her boyfriend is a Real Madrid supporter so she sometimes goes to the match with him, but she doesn't really like football. What she likes is going to the opera. But although she likes classical music, she also likes listening to other kinds of music for example: jazz, Spanish folk music and even some country and western. Both she and her boyfriend enjoy going to concerts but they never go to the theatre.

Martin Smith

Martin lives in London; he's an IT expert and has his own one-man company. He's always on Facebook, and twitters all day. In his free time he plays computer games, and he creates new ones. He doesn't like sport at all, though he does like dancing and he goes dancing every Saturday night. His favourite music is reggae, but he also likes hip hop and disco music. He doesn't like classical music and doesn't understand how anyone can like opera.

Does he live in London? Yes, he does.

Does he live in Vienna? No, he doesn't.

Is he an IT expert? Yes, he is.

Is he a baker? No, he isn't.

Is he always on Facebook? Yes, he is.

Is he always on WhatsApp? No, he isn't.

Is his favourite music reggae? Yes, it is.

Is his favourite music Austro-Pop? No, it isn't?

4. Furniture

<https://www.speaklanguages.com/english/vocab/furniture-and-household-items>

Furnishings	Household appliances	Soft furnishings
armchair	alarm clock	blanket
bed	bathroom scales	blinds
bedside table	Blu-ray player	carpet
bookcase	CD player	curtains
bookshelf	DVD player	cushion
chair	electric fire	duvet
chest of drawers	games console	mattress
clock	gas fire	pillow
coat stand	hoover or vacuum cleaner	pillowcase
coffee table	iron	rug
cupboard	lamp	sheet
desk	radiator	tablecloth
double bed	radio	towel
dressing table	record player	wallpaper
drinks cabinet	spin dryer
filing cabinet	stereo
mirror	telephone
piano	TV (abbreviation of television)
sideboard
single bed
sofa
sofa-bed
stool
table
wardrobe
Other useful words
bath	flannel	painting
bin	dustpan and brush	picture
broom	flannel	plug
bucket	fuse box	plug socket or power socket
coat hanger	hot tap	plughole
cold tap	houseplant	poster
door handle	ironing board	sponge
door knob	lampshade	tap
doormat	light switch	torch
dustbin	mop	vase
dustpan and brush	ornament	waste paper basket

Homes

house	flat	apartment	living room	garden
bedrooms	bathroom	kitchen	dining room

Ask your partner where they live and what they have in their home?

Sample Questions & Responses

Do you live in a house or a flat?

Has it got a living room?

Is there a garden?

How many rooms has it got?

How many bedrooms are there?

I live in a house (not: I'm living)

Yes, it has / No, it hasn't

Yes, there is / No, there isn't

It's got five (rooms)

There are two (bedrooms)

You	Partner

Tasks:

1. Use the new vocabulary in sentences.
2. Write four or five sentences describing your home.